Anna Fiorentini Theatre & Film School

The award-winning Anna Fiorentini Theatre & Film School which runs on Wednesday evenings in Docklands has a new term starting on 14th September. It's a really exciting time to be joining the school and you can claim 20% off your first term at the Anna Fiorentini Theatre & Film School by quoting your school on the application form.

Students aged 7-18 years old will be working on fun projects in drama, dance and singing classes. The school believes that professional performing arts training needs to be accessible to all young people who wish to build on their confidence, self-esteem and other transferable life skills, or to those who want to pursue a career in the arts industry. Through the Agency, many students have won leading roles on film, TV and in the West End. The school also runs Fiorentini Weenies classes on Saturdays to introduce 4-6 year olds to the fun and excitement of the performing arts in a nurturing environment.

To find out more and to book your obligation-free taster day, visit: www.afperformingarts.com/theatre-and-film-school/schools/docklands

